Christmas Play

On December 18, "The Key To Christmas," by Lucile Crites Sligh, will be presenteed at the Trinity Methodist Church, at 7:30 P. M.

The cast includes: David Martin, Glenn Morris, T. R. Martin, Bentley Martin, Jacqueline Cobbs, Dot Colemaii, Merlyn Martin, Pam Martin and Gaynell Martin.

Other members of the church will participate in the singing or the Manger Scene.

The public is cordially invited to see this play at Trinity Methodist Church, Concord, Va.

Memorial Methodist Church Activities

A Christmas Cantata-Pageant entitled - "Christmastide" will be given at 6:30 p.m. Sunday by the Young People of the Church assisted by many of other ages of the Church School membership. The cantata-pageant describes the coming of Christmastide to the world with the birth of Christ, and the assurance of the lustily singing Angels and the brightly shining Star of the East. These first Christmas Songs will never be silenced and the brilliance of the Christmas Star will never be dimmed. Christmastide will be presented coming down the path of time in the faces of children, the praises of youth in the hymns of Christendom, and the strong influences of adults in the homes, churches, and communities of the ages. The service will close with the Nativity Scene and the full meaning of the Greatest Gift the world has ever received.

At the morning worship hour - 11:00 A M the Message will be delivered by a Member of the Gideons and an opportunity will be given to share in the work of the Gideons in placing copies of the Bible in the schools, hotels, motels, and many other places.

On Tuesday evening at 6:30 PM the Mens' Club with Dr. S. R. Lawson, presiding, will meet in monthly fellowship supper occasion. A guest speaker will highlight the evening with inspiration and information of the Mens' Work of the Church.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will conduct their Annual Christmas Service on Wednesday evening in the Church Sanctuary, with Mrs. Marvin A. Hemcall, president, in charge followed by the meeting of the six circles.

Graveside services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Community Cemetery, Pamplin.

Senior Class News

The Senior Class held a meeting December 6, in the high school auditorium. Robert Garrette, president, presided.

The class discussed the Senior Trip, and some ways of making money for this trip. The Seniors will offer stationary for sale in the future. The class will have a bake sale to make some money for the trip.

The class voted to have a 'White Christmas' for some needy family.

Many of the Seniors took the college entrance examination Saturday at the E. C. Glass High School.

During an assembly program this week the following Senior boys received their letter and certificate for playing football: Watt Jamerson, Dicky Guill, Bentley Martin, Donnid Baldwin, Freddie Wingfield, Harold Conner, and Robert Garrette. Congratulations, boys, for the fine work you did this past season.

HOLIDAY - 1960

You know and I know that the Holiday is a way of human expression for the blessings we share. This is nice and it's comfortable. The laden table and the "plenty of everythings" are symbols of the material things that we have come to expect. But what of this? What if in some strange way these things were suddenly snatched from us? What if the turkey became a bowl of rice? Or the "plenty of everything" became a desperate contest to stay alive? What if our homes had little furniture or our garage no car? What if we were reduced to the status of a "have" not" Instead of a "have"? What if we had to live with only hope to live and be happy as many people throughout the world are forced to do at this moment. What would holidays mean to you? I'm sure that if such was the case the Holidays would go on. I'm sure that it would live with what ever we may have for the families would find some table in some room to bring his or her loved ones together, no matter how scant the food, how scant the wines or how scant the "plenty of everythings."

A. H. S. Wins Basketball Game Here

The Appomattox H. S. Rebels won handily over Rustburg H. S. last Friday night to keep their district slate intact. Freddie Wingfield and Dickie Guill led the scoring with 33 points between them. Robert Garrett netted 11 and Pankey 6, while Whitehead sank 4 to finish out the scoring.

The girls fought hard and never gave up in a 49-33 loss to the taller Rustburg girls. This was their first loss and evened their district record at 1 and 1. Pat Thomas led the girls in their first victory, with 26 points, and netted half that many Friday night against Rustburg.

Both boys and girls journey to New London Academy Friday night, to face the runner-up in the district tourney last year. New London boys are back at home, after a close 37-36 loss to Amherst, but should make this game a good one. Appomattox will lack the height to cope with the New London boys, but should make that up in speed and hustle.

Sheriff D. T. Robertson

Visited Shop At McGuire

Mrs. Charles T. Moses, Jr., Fourth District President, and Mrs. John S. Moore, Fourth District Secretary and treasurer, of the American Legion Auxiliary, both members of the Appomattox Unit 104, spent the day at McGuire Hospital in Richmond Saturday. They were there with volunteers from the other nine districts in the state to aid the veterans in their shopping tour at the Christmas Gift Shop, a project of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Virginia.

Members of this organization had worked to set up a miniature department store and on Saturday, the veterans came into the gift shop and selected gifts to send to each member of their family. The gifts were wrapped and mailed, without cost to the veterans.

Mrs. Charles T. Lewin, president, American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Virginia, and Mrs. W. P. Ellis, of Suffolk, were also there from the Fourth District.

U. D. C Meet Here Tonight

The Appomattox Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet tonight at eight o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Calvin Robinson. Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. G. L. Doss and Miss Mary Covington will be cohostesses. Miss Kate Franklin will present the program for the evening.

AT COUNTY LIBRARY

The County Library will be closed on the following days during the Christmas season:

From December 27 through December 30, the Library will be open from 10 A. M. until 2 P. M.

SANTA CLAUS TO VISIT APPOMATTOX

Santa Claus will be in Appomattox tomorrow afternoon, Friday, December 16, from 4 to 5 P. M. Mr. Leslie Goodrich will bring Santa into town in his Pony Cart, as Santa might not have quite enough snow to use his sleigh.

Bring the youngsters out Friday afternoon to see and greet Santa!

LIBERTY W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of Liberty Baptist Church members are asked to bring their cakes for the Orphanage Sunday morning.

TOWN COUNCIL MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

The Town Council of Appomattox will hold its monthly meeting on Monday night, Dec. 19, at 7:30, in the Town Office.

Play safe — drive carefully.

Appomattox was saddened this week by a tragic automotive accident which on Sunday afternoon took the life of the County Sheriff, David T. Robertson.

Sheriff Robertson, and his wife Ethel Lee Martin Robertson, were en route to Lynchburg, to see the Deputy Sheriff, Walter Conner, who had been seriously injured in another automotive accident shortly earlier. Highway conditions were most hazardous, due to severe winter weather, ice and snow, Sheriff Robertson, apparently sought to miss a skidding car ahead of him, and in doing so, collided with an approaching truck. The accident took place on Route 460, near Concord, Va. The Sheriff died, almost instantly. Mrs. Robertson was also severely injured, and remains hospitalized.

Mr. Conner and his family were returning from Lynchburg, when his car went out of control on the icy highway, near the same spot where later Sheriff Robertson's accident occurred. No collision was involved in his accident. He received serious chest injuries, and his wife and family received minor injuries. Mr. Conner remains in the hospital, but is reported in satisfactory condition. His family was released from the hospital, after examination.

David Thomas Robertson was born in Appomattox County March 18, 1921, son of Wiley Hogue and Rosa Boodurant Robertson.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife, Ethel Lee Martin Robertson; two brothers, Shearer B. Robertson, of Spout Spring, and Wiley H. Robertson, Jr., of Altavista; and three sisters, Mrs. Theodore Carson, of Altavista; Mrs. Joel Asher, of Brookneal, and Mrs. Burt Broom, of Pompano Beach, Florida.

A veteran of World War II, he served with distinction in the U. S. Marine Corps. He was with the first platoons landing on Guadalcanal Isaland in the Pacific, and was honorably discharged after sustaining medical disability. He returned to Appomattox, and served as a town police officer and upon the death of the late H. W. McKinney, was appointed as County Sheriff.

Always active in civic affairs he was a past Commander of the local American Legion Post 104. He was a member of Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church.

One of his recent services was to restore the Confederate monument in the court house Square after it was demolished in "Hurricane Hazel." This saved the county some $4,000. He also, saved the county many thousands of dollars in his work of purchasing war surplus equipment for the county fire engine, school shops, etc. He installed modern equipment in the Sheriff's department, became an expert in the art of taking fingerprints, and in the use of modern police techniques, and he won a wide recognition as a modern police officer, skilled in the latest methods of solving crimes. He was one of Appomattox County's most widely known citizens.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 3 P. M., from Robinson Funeral Home, by Dr. Twyman Williams and the Rev. R. A. Bergdoll. Burial was in Liberty Cemetery.

MR. L. H. GODSEY

Luther Hubert Godsey, 77, retired welder, died unexpectedly here Wednesday night. He was a native of Appomattox County, and a son of Luther Huff and Sally Jane Lee Godsey. He was a member of Liberty Baptist Church, Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Elma Rene Giles Godsey; two sons, L. T. Godsey, of Lynchburg, and G. C. (Pat) Godsey, of Appomattox; three daughters, Miss Delphia Godsey, Mrs. Paul Thompson, and Mrs. Maynard Gilbert, all of Appomattox; two brothers, Joseph W. Godsey of Baltimore, and Whitney L. Godsey, of Appomattox; a half-sister, Mrs. Lula Eagle, of Appomattox, and 17 grandchildren, and eight great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Robinson Funeral Home here at 3 P. M. Friday. Burial will be in Liberty Cemetery.
